Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Reissue Applications

The reissue oath/declaration filed with this application is defective because the error which is relied upon to support the reissue application is not an error upon which a reissue can be based. See 37 CFR 1.175(a)(1) and MPEP § 1414.

The reissue is sought based on the alleged errors of the failure of the Patent and Trademark Office to properly act on the petition to withdraw a Terminal Disclaimer filed under 37 CFR 1.182 or withdrawing the application from issuance under 37 CFR 1.313 either before or after the payment of an issue fee and that this error resulted in the patentee claiming less than the patentee had a right to claim in regards to the term of the patent that issued.

As a general principle, public policy does not favor the restoration to the patent owner of something that has been freely dedicated to the public, particularly where the public interest is not protected in some manner — e.g., intervening rights in the case of a reissue patent. See, e.g., Altoona Publix Theatres v. American Tri-Ergon Corp., 294 U.S.477,24 USPQ 308 (1935).

The Applicant suggests that reissue be used to nullify the Terminal Disclaimer here and points to the decision of the Board of Patent Appeals and Interferences in the reissue examination of RE35,754 to Durckheimer et al. as an example of where a reissue has been used for such a purpose. However, the present application is distinguishable from that case.

A reading of the Durckheimer et al. decision reveals on page 21 of the decision that there was "an unique set of facts and circumstances wherein the claims which were secured by the filing of the terminal disclaimer were cancelled before the patent was granted." The terminal disclaimer secured none of the claims that were issued in the patent. This unique set of facts appears to have figured prominently in the decision that was reached by the Board. This is not the case in the present reissue where at least claim 1 of the patent was submitted and secured with the terminal disclaimer.

Conclusion

The original patent, or a statement as to loss or inaccessibility of the original patent, must be received before this reissue application can be allowed. See 37 CFR 1.178.
